507 罗斯入伙

罗斯和艾米丽租住女方表亲的房子，两人关系出现裂痕后，罗斯被勒令搬出，他于是搬来跟钱德和乔伊同居。

罗斯是个不大受欢迎的室友，钱德和乔伊想他另找住处：：小点没关系。

这样做两人又有负疚感，所以他们又想法让罗斯租房遭拒。

菲比和她在莫妮卡餐厅遇到的卫生稽查员 Larry 约会。

此人不断勒令营业场所停业整顿，菲比起初对他的权力倾倒不已，但随后发现吃饭的地方越来越少。

瑞秋认定丹尼为她钟情，并认为他欲擒故纵只是想在关系中占据上风而已。

5.07 The One Where Ross Moves In

Emily's cousin kicks Ross out of the apartment they were to live in, so he moves in with Chandler and Joey.

Ross is more than a little obnoxious(adj. 不愉快的 讨人厌的), so Chandler and Joey pressure him to move to a new place... even if it's tiny.

Their guilt gets the better of(v. 打败) them, however, and they arrange for(v. 安排) Ross' application to be rejected.

Phoebe dates a Larry, a health inspector she met at Monica's restaurant.

At first she is turned on(v. 变得兴奋) by his power to close places down, but soon realizes that they're running out of good places to eat.

Rachel is convinced that(v. 确信) Danny likes her and that his apparent apathy(n. 冷漠) toward her is just a ploy(v. 计谋 计划) to gain the upper hand(n. 优势) in their relationship.

[Scene: Central Perk, Chandler and Joey are there. Joey is looking at a National Geographic and giggling.]

The National Geographic Magazine 'later shortened to National Geographic, is the official journal(n. 定期刊物) of the National Geographic Society. It published its first issue in 1888, just nine months after the Society itself was founded. Joey: Yeah.

Ross: You got it.

knock yourself out: is to go for it or to do as much as you want without anyone's permission '非常地道的美语表达'。如果有天你去美国朋友家里做客'或者去参加一个美国朋友举行的宴会'当他们对你说"Knock yourself out"的时候'你可不要认变他们的意思是要你自己打自己一拳喔! knock yourself out 是一个片语'意思是"随便点、不必客气" '包含的意思是"你可以尽情地玩' 作任何你想做的事情, 把这里当成自己的家一样, 不必客气"。如 'A: Could you give me your pencil for a while? B: Knock yourself out. My pencil is just on the table. 这个片语除作"随便点、不必客气"的意思外' 有时我们使用它时' 通常是指遇到一件事情' 别人坚持去做' 而你觉得没有必要' 所以说上一句"knock yourself out"来表达你懒得去理睬的意思' 如 'If you really want to ask him who has no any competence to help us solve our problems, the only word I can tell you is to knock yourself out./eat beans off that floor 地板干净到掉在地上的豆子也能吃

Larry: Ahh that's the 2 points.

Danny: Uh, actually, actually, I'm having a party at my place on Saturday, it's sort of a house warming kind of thing.

A housewarming party 'is a party held on the occasion of moving into a new residence. It is an occasion for the hosts to present their new home to their friends, and sometimes for friends to give gifts to furnish the new home. Housewarming parties are generally informal; usually there are no planned activities besides a possible tour. (搬新居后 '邀请朋友来开新居开派对暖房) blow up in someone's face '栽了跟头(这里可以译为:当场给他点颜色瞧瞧)' °现实生活中总有一些人由于急剧增长的名誉或取得的重要成就而骄傲起来 '这时他们就可能栽个跟头了 °The football player is great. They say, "Pride goes before a fall". Years of constant success and popularity are about to blow up in his face. (这名足球运动员是很优秀的 °有句话说"骄傲在失败之前" °多年来长久的成功和声望就要使他栽跟头了 °) 这里片语 blow up in someone's face 的意思是"使某人栽跟头或使某人做事失败" °这个片语主要用来描述突然间的 '没有预期到的做事失败或栽了跟头 '所以有时也译为令某人难堪 °if something you have done or planned to do blows up in your face, it suddenly goes wrong. 再看一个例子 'Harry is very proud of herself, she always tells others that she is the best one. But now, it is kind of funny watching the presentation blow up in her face. (但现在看到她难堪的样子真是有趣 °)

Monica: So-so there is no party.

Rachel: No, there's a party. There's a party. But the power, that is still up for grabs. You follow me 你懂我意思吗?

Chandler: Oh yeah!

Ross: Oh, I uh, hope you don't mind, I kinda uh, jazzed it up a little. Check this out. (He plays the greeting, and We Will Rock You starts to play and Ross's voice comes over it.) We will, we will, call you back!

jazz <俚>唬人之谈 空话 胡扯/"We Will Rock You" is a song written by Brian May, and recorded and performed by Queen. One version was used as the opening track on their 1977 album News Of The World. This version consists of a stamping-clapping beat, and a power chorus(n. 合唱), being somewhat of an anthem. When performed live, this version is usually followed by "We Are the Champions", another of the album's hits, as they were both made to lead into each other. It has since been used extensively at sporting events. The band also performed the song in another arrangement (known as the "fast version"), which featured a faster tempo(n. 音乐的速度 拍子) and a full guitar, bass and drums backing track throughout. The band would often open their live sets in the late 1970s with this version, as captured on their Live Killers double album.

Now take you fingers and point them at the other hand and making a 90-degree angle with each of your hands and the first knuckle counting up from the wrist. Now take your right hand, no your other right (that was for the dyslexics), and lower it a couple of inches, so that the fingers are pointing at your wrist. Now take your arms and keeping the elbows bent and your hands in front of you spread out your arms, kinda like making a bird's wing. Now hunch your shoulders(=shrug) over and move you hands up and down as if you are trying to tell some one to turn it down. That's Ross 'quiet down' maneuver.
