604 乔伊没买保险

瑞秋收拾行李搬去罗斯的公寓。

一通罗斯的律师打来的电话，使瑞秋发现两人仍是夫妇。

菲比去算命，据说她一周内会死。

罗斯成为纽约大学的客座讲师。

他过于担心自己讲课时的临场表现，结果讲课时使用怪腔怪调的英国英语。

乔伊近来生意清淡，以至买不起医疗保险。

他联系代理人 Estelle，请她安排一些试镜。

Estelle 还以为他早跟别的代理人跑了呢。

试镜前，他染患严重的疝气，但因为没有医疗保险，他拒绝上医院。

6.04 The One Where Joey Loses His Insurance

Rachel packs her things and moves to Ross's apartment.

Once there, she intercepts a phone call from Ross's lawyer revealing they're still married.

Phoebe's psychic tells her she's going to die this week.

Ross becomes a guest lecturer at NYU.

He's so worried his presentation won't go well that he panics and presents it with an phony English accent.

Joey's medical benefits lapse because he hasn't done enough acting recently.

He contacts his agent, Estelle (who mistakenly believes he'd gone to another agent), to arrange for some auditions.

He gets a severe hernia before auditioning, but refuses to go to the hospital until he has insurance again.

[Scene: Monica and Rachel's, Rachel is packing her belongings to move to Ross's. She's standing in the kitchen.]

sad adj. 悲哀的

Ross: Oh : my : God! I-I see what this is! You are in love with Rachel!

Phoebe: What?!!

Ross: Of course! It all adds up! I mean you you're obsessed with her. It's always, "Ross, what are you gonna do about Rachel?" "Ross, why-why are you moving in with Rachel?" "When are you gonna confess your secret marriage to Rachel?" You want her!

It all adds up <口>这倒说得通 °这句话表示:为事物的结果找到合理的解释

Phoebe: No! (Ross's phone rings.)

Joey: I can't believe she would say that to you.

Rachel: Yeah honey you don't believe her do you?

Chandler: That's the way I did it—til I was 19. All right, 20. Twenty-three.

Step 4 of "Cup and Saucer"String figures were widely studied by anthropologists(n. 人类学家) from the 1880s through around 1900 , as they appear to have arisen independently as an entertainment pastime in many societies. Many figures were collected and described from Pacific Islanders, Inuit and other Native Americans. The first known book of the subject was String Figures and How to Make Them, by Caroline Furness Jayne. n. 跳蹦蹦

Joey: (reads it) Oh, I can't believe this! This sucks! When I had insurance I could get hit by a bus or catch on fire, y-know? And it wouldn't matter. Now I gotta be careful?!

Chandler: I'm sorry man, there's never a good time to have to (pauses) stop catching on fire.

Joey: All right well, I guess I gotta go get a job. I'm gonna go see my agent.

Joey: What are you talkin’ about? I never left you! You’ve always been my agent!

Estelle: Really?!

Joey: Yeah!

Estelle: Oh well, no harm, no foul.

no harm, no foul 是 LA Lakers 队的体育播音员“Chick Hearn”创造的 NBA 语言。表面意思是“没有伤害”就不算犯规。指篮球运动中轻微的身体接触，不能当作犯规。这里 Estelle 以为 Joey 抛弃了她，就暗中捣鬼，把 Joey 的保险弄没了。当她知道是自己误会的时候，就说了这么句话为自己的行为开脱/no harm, no foul<俚>no problem, it's cool. Usually used in response to (adv. 响应 回应) someone's apology to indicate acceptance. [eg: Hey, Sorry I insulted you earlier. I didn't mean for it to come out that way. Response: no harm no foul buddy]/no harm no foul :there is no problem if no serious damage was done. In his excitement, he deleted all the files, but they were restored later from a backup copy | no harm, no foul. Etymology(语源): from the use of this phrase in basketball (= a sport) to say that if an action that is against the rules has no effect on the results of the game, there should be no foul (= punishment)

Ross: (to the class) Right! So when Rigby got his samples back from the laboratory he made a startling discovery! What he believed to be igneous, was in fact sedimentary. Imagine his consternation when | (sees Monica and Rachel.) Oh bloody hell.

Joey: Look, I'm telling you if I put my hand on my stomach right here (He puts his hand down his pants, like Al Bundy on Married: With Children always used to do.) it doesn't hurt that bad.

Alphonse Hercules Bundy (born ca. 1948) is a fictional character from the U.S. television series Married: with Children, played by Ed O'Neill.

Married: with Children is an American sitcom about a dysfunctional (adj. 功能紊乱的) family living in Chicago that was originally broadcast from 1987 to 1997. The series was created by Michael G. Moyer and Ron Leavitt. The show's 262 episodes over 11 seasons make it the second-longest-lasting sitcom on the FOX network (second only to The Simpsons) and the network's longest live-action sitcom. The theme song used for the show is "Love and Marriage" by Frank Sinatra.
